Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given at the end: (10)

Hazrat Khalid Bin Waleed رضی اللہ عنہ was extremely kind-hearted and just to the people. His army had strict orders not to do any harm to the farmers, aged persons, women, children and other civilians. "They are the real strength of society", he said, "They should always be treated with kindness and respect". This was something new for the conquered people, who felt very happy now. The Iranian and Byzantine officers were very hard on them. Hazrat Khalid Bin Waleed's رضی اللہ عنہ treatment won their hearts so much that they began to hate their cruel old masters.

QUESTIONS:

- How did Hazrat Khalid Bin Waleed رضی اللہ عنہ treat the people?
- What were the orders given to the army?
- What did he say about the farmers and civilians?
- How had their former masters treated them?
- Why did the people hate their old masters?
